RAILS DIP

NEW YORK (AP)—Rails and motors dipped sharply in a moderately lower stock market early this afternoon. Trading was somewhat faster than Friday's slow pace.

Key stocks fell from fractions to a point or more. A scattering of fractional gainers cushioned the decline.

Rail stocks declined on a broad front, some losses going to a point or two.

The major auto stocks also showed some fairly sharp losses. Steels eased off fractionally. Some of the office equipments and other "glamour" issues fell several points. Drugs, tobaccos, airlines and rubbers were among the losers.

3 SENTENCED IN SERIES OF BURGLARIES

Three Baltimore youths were sentenced to from three to 12 months in the Adams County jail this morning on burglary and larceny charges with the sentences to begin as of May 8.

The three will be automatically placed on parole at the expiration of the three months, on condition of restitution for damages and loss is made and costs paid by that time.

They are James Edward Harry Jr., 17; Jerry Allen Jewell, 18, and Leroy Hunter Cook, 21, all of Baltimore. Cook was a former resident here and attended Gettysburg High School about five years ago.

MOST LOOT RETURNED

The employer of Jewell told the court he could have his job back at the service station as soon as he gets out of jail and praised his honesty as an employee. A neighbor of Harry praised the youth and also praised Jewell and told of a job he had secured for Harry when he gets out of jail.

The three said they met at the confederacy owned by Jewell's mother, where Jewell was employed on the night of May 8, and went for a ride in Harry's car. Enroute they decided to burglarize some places and Cook, as a former resident here, decided the places to enter. State police had charges of burglary and larceny of Bankert's Restaurant, Gettysburg R. 1, and the Two Mile Inn, Littlestown R. D. Borough police brought similar charges of burglary and larceny of the Rec Park Diner and Gettysburg Glass Co. Money and articles stolen from the various places were nearly all returned after the youths, shortly after the burglaries here, were captured in Westminster. Considerable damage however was reported at several of the burglary sites.

Judge W. C. Sheely told the three youth he was impressed by the testimony of their neighbor and employer.

JAIL TERMS FOR TWO

At the same time the court said: "This matter of burglary cannot be overlooked."

Lewis H. Jackson, Hanover, and Freddy O. Altice, Aspers, were each sentenced to 30 days in jail and each ordered to pay a fine of $100 and the costs as a result of charges brought following an accident June 2 near Biglerville. A charge of permitting an intoxicated person to operate his car, brought when it was believed Altice was driving Jackson's vehicle was dropped when it became evident later that Jackson was the driver at the time of the accident. That charge was dismissed today. Jackson was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

PRESS FRACAS BRINGS PLEA TO KENNEDY

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's American press corps has appealed to President Kennedy to support a protest against manhandling of newsmen by Vietnamese secret police.

The newsmen protested to the U.S. Embassy Sunday and cabled Kennedy after police felled and kicked a Western correspondent and smashed two cameras in a fracas following a memorial service for a Buddhist monk who burned himself to death last month.

About 1,000 Buddhist monks and nuns attended the service at Chantreansay Pagoda in North Saigon for Quang Duc, 73, who publicly immolated himself in Saigon June 11. The act protested alleged discrimination against South Viet Nam's Buddhist majority by the government.

BANNED SERVICES
The government banned public services for Quang Duc, apparently fearing a riot might erupt despite an agreement with the Buddhists resolving many differences.

Plainclothes secret police who had been shadowing Western newsmen at recent Buddhist demonstrations were out in force Sunday.

As a monk carrying Quang Duc's ashes in a silver cup started to lead a procession out of the pagoda, uniformed police ordered the mourners to leave in small groups.

When Western newsmen and photographers moved in closer, a New Zealander, was wrestled to the ground and kicked, suffering cuts and bruises. Two AP cameras were broken and a CBS movie camera was dented.

BEER DRINKING YOUTHS RIOT IN KANSAS TOWN

GARNETT, Kan. (AP) — This little eastern Kansas town picked up the pieces today and wondered what course to take after a wild riot by hundreds of beer drinking youths marred the final day of the fifth annual Grand Prix sport car races, a national event attended by 65,000 persons.

A policeman was dead of a heart attack suffered at the height of the riot early Sunday. More than 100 persons were treated for minor injuries. Officers jailed 26 of an estimated 1,500 youths involved in the riot.

The sports car drivers, who had no part in the riot, were angry. "They messed the whole thing up," one driver said.

Many officials doubted the races could continue.

Police Capt. Robert C. Cowdin, 42, of Ottawa, Kan., father of three children, collapsed after he had used a tear gas gun against the rioters.

The youths fought police and firemen, hurled bricks and stones, beer bottles and cans. Twice they tried unsuccessfully to storm the city jail to free youths arrested earlier and in protest of the closing of two beer halls.

The mob began to break up after Capt. Cowdin's death was announced, almost two hours after the riot began.

$14,527,809 State Deficit

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state finished the 1962-63 fiscal year with a $14,527,809 deficit, Gov. Scranton reported today.

The governor reported that actual revenue collection for the fiscal year which ended June 30 were $24.4 million below estimates.

The statement was released as administration fiscal officers went into session with the House Appropriations Committee to discuss the state's financial position.

The deficit was reduced to some $14.5 million primarily through the administration's "strict economy program," Scranton said.

Some $967.7 million was collected in state taxes for the 1962-63 fiscal year as compared with official estimates of $992.1 million.

The most prominent deficit estimate was about $21 million.

The bulk of the revenue shortage of $24.4 million came in corporation tax collections which were $15.6 million below the estimate of $157 million, the fiscal report showed.

The capitol stock and franchise tax brought in some $3.6 million more than anticipated.

In his statement, Scranton pledged to continue his austerity program in the new fiscal year which began July 1.

STATE EFFORTS

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller announced he will ask the Governors Conference to endorse a resolution calling for state efforts to end racial discrimination in places of public accommodation, housing, education, transportation and employment.

Kentucky Gov. Bert Combs indicated he is narrowing the scope of his executive order against discrimination to include only public places of food, shelter, recreation, entertainment or amusement. As issued last month, the order indirectly would have banned racial bias in all business and professions licensed by the state.

Two Countians In Hanover Accidents

A collision in Hanover occurred at the north entrance to the Hanover diner at 4:50 p.m. Thursday. A sedan driven by Earl J. Groft, 51, of 352 Main St., McSherrystown, and a tractor-trailer truck driven by James Musseman, 43, Dillsburg, were damaged, police said, when the car, moving south, crossed over the center of the highway and struck the rear left tire of the truck, moving north. Damage was $120 to the sedan and $10 to the truck, owned by R. L. Shillito, Dillsburg, police said.

At 4 a.m. Friday in Hanover a truck hauling pea vines did about $160 damage when the driver, Roy Sloughour, Hampton, fell asleep at the wheel, according to Penn Township police. The truck, traveling west on York Street, went onto the pavement in front of the property occupied by Paul J. Yost, knocked over a state route marker and pillar, skidded 25 feet through a hedge and struck another pillar, halting on the roadway. Damage to the truck was $10 and to the property $150, township police reported.

Gettysburg Cover Features AAA Issue

The American Motorist, a publication of the AAA, has a striking cover featuring cannon on the Gettysburg Battlefield in the July issue. The accompanying text says: "Mementoes of a past war stand silent now, sentinels over ground made special and sacred by the men who fought and died there . . . Gettysburg, 1863."

The magazine's editorial calls attention to the fact, that "the attraction of the historic sites and ceremonies connected with our national heritage is strong, especially now that the summer touring season is in full swing. Nowhere in the land are these sites and ceremonies very far from the home fireside, and there is an unlimited number of pleasant, enjoyable and often educational tours for summer weekend travelers or fortnight vacationers. . . . History is always a good reason for travel."

553 TRAFFIC DEATHS SET HOLIDAY MARK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents killed at least 553 Americans during the long Independence Day weekend, a record for the holiday.

A Sunday spurt in highway fatalities sent the toll beyond the record 509 mark of 1961 well before the midnight deadline for the four-day period.

The final tally for the 102-hour period from 6 p.m., Wednesday, to midnight Sunday (local times) fell within a death count span estimated by safety experts before the holiday period.

COUNCIL ESTIMATE

The National Safety Council, in a pre-holiday statement, estimated 550-650 persons would die in traffic accidents during the long weekend.

"It has been a costly weekend in terms of accidental death and injury, breaking all records for a summer holiday weekend," said Howard Pyle, council president.

"The wicked part of it is that at least 70 per cent of the damage was done through avoidable situations: speeds too great for conditions, failure to yield right-of-way, violation of the centerline in the road, and drinking and driving."

100 PER DAY

The council's figures show that traffic deaths in the first five months this year have averaged 100 per day.

An Associated Press survey of a four-day non-holiday weekend showed 458 traffic deaths. The 102-hour period was from 6 p.m. Wednesday, June 19 to midnight Sunday, June 23.

There were several multiple fatality accidents during this year's holiday.

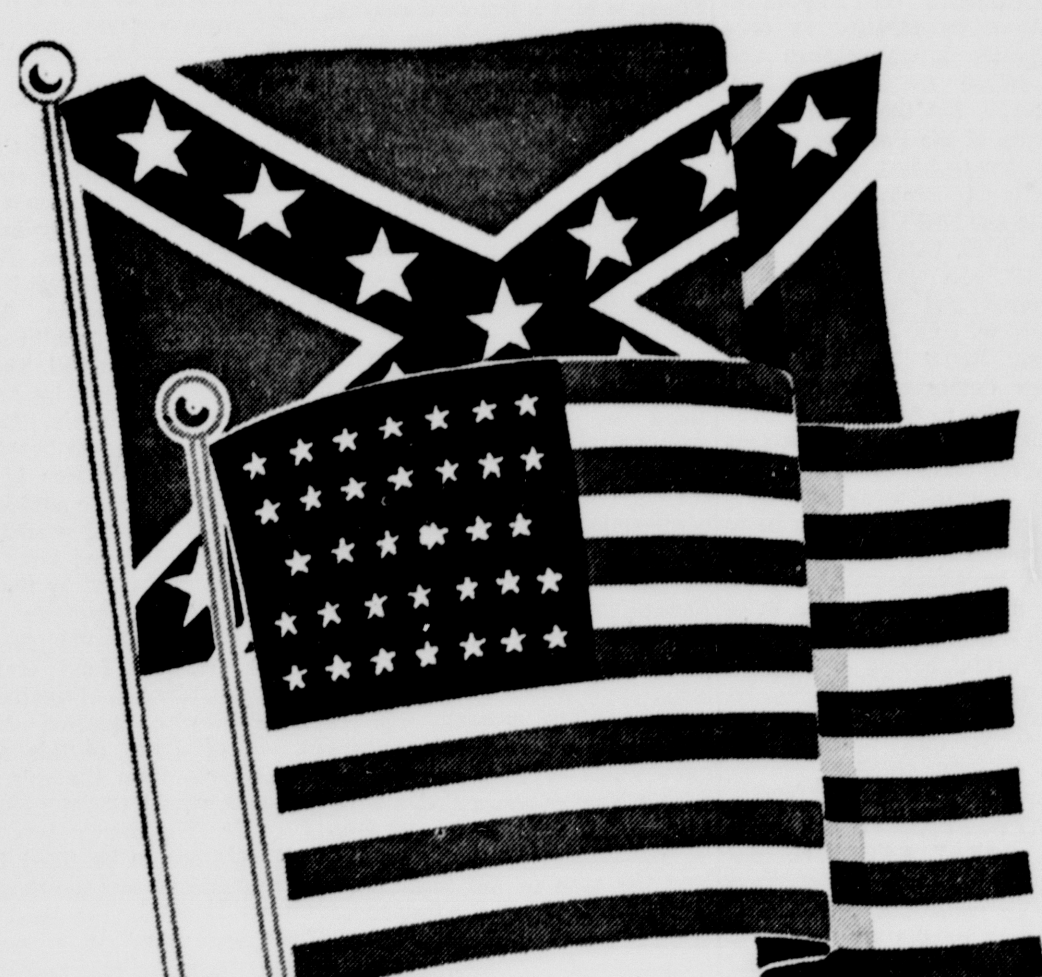

In addition to traffic deaths, 143 persons drowned and 41 others lost their lives in boating accidents.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Flags Captured at Gettysburg: Thirty-one new rebel battle flags were captured by our forces in the recent battle at Gettysburg. They were taken to Washington to the War Department. Most of them were much perforated with balls, and others very bloody. One of them is a silk flag with the rising sun on it. The following are some of the regiments from which they were taken: 7th, 22nd, 23rd and 34th North Carolina; 1st, 3rd, 7th, 9th, 14th, 18th, 28th, 37th, 38th, 53rd and 56th Virginia, and 13th Alabama.

Among the killed at Gettysburg was a young Chinaman known as John Tommy. He was attached to the first regiment Excelsior Brigade, Capt. Price's company. In the engagements at Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and last at Gettysburg John Tommy was one of the bravest soldiers, in that bravest of brigades, the Excelsior. He seemed not to know what fear was and was the universal favorite of all his fellow soldiers. He had not been wounded up to Gettysburg but in Friday's fight he was struck by a shell which tore off both legs at the thighs and he shortly died to death.

Help The Wounded Soldiers:

The United States Sanitary Commission urgently request contributions to aid the sick and wounded soldiers in and around Gettysburg. There is GREAT NEED OF PROMPT SUPPLIES of food and clothing of every description. BREAD, BUTTER, EGGS, DRIED FRUITS, MEATS, ETC., BLANKETS, COMFORTS, PILLOWS, SHIRTS, DRAWERS, ETC., will be particularly accepted. FARMERS OF PENNSYLVANIA, come forward at once to help the brave soldiers who have driven the invader from your State. Let the Sacrifices of the Army of the Potomac be met by a corresponding liberality of our citizens. Send all you can spare to our DEPOT IN GETTYSBURG, S. E. CORNER OF THE SQUARE, and we will attend to its prompt and proper distribution. James Gall Jr., J. Wagner Johnson, Relief Agents, U. S. Sanitary Commission.

SPECIAL NOTICE:

Citizens visiting the battlefield are warned against carrying away any Government property, and all those having taken such property, either Federal or Confederate, are directed to return the same without delay to my office in Gettysburg, thereby saving themselves from arrest and punishment. W. Willard Smith, Capt. Aide de Camp to the Gen. in Chief and acting Provost Marshall.

SEVENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

THE GREAT REUNION: Believing them to be of interest in connection with the meeting of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, the Grand Army of the Republic, and the great Reunion just closed here, we published summaries of some of the leading speeches delivered. Governor Beaver said in substance that this was a day to reverse and a day to honor the dead. In his closing paragraph he said "When the measure of this generation has been filled, when the men who fought at Gettysburg, the men who shed blood at Gettysburg, the men who made the battlefield of Gettysburg historic and immortal, when all these men are dead, the hero of this fight, the man whose career and whose reputation and whose glory any patriot might covet, is the man whose monument stands yonder and who fell on the battlefield (meaning Reynolds), (Great Applause). Ex-governor John C. Robinson of New York, resting on his crutches responded on behalf of the corps. He thanked Governor Beaver for his cordial greeting but thought it no more than Reynolds' old command deserved and

Today's Talk

THE LIFTER

Every community has its knockers. They are not difficult to find. Stand around and start talk and one is almost sure to hear someone begin to knock someone. But the lifters — what rare people!

And what I mean by a lifter is that one who hunts around for someone to encourage, boost, and help lift to a higher place in the community and in the estimate of himself.

A friend — a great newspaper published — once told me that there were only two types of people in a town — the lifters and the leaneers. But this talk is about the lifter as contrasted with that one who delights in discouraging a man by trying to pull him down.

Nearly every successful man and woman can point to someone who gave them early boosts — when they sorely needed them. A pat on the back, a you-can-do-it word has lifted the spirit of many a human being and started him anew to a higher plane of living.

Encouragement is perhaps the greatest factor in anyone's success and happiness. It's food, not only to the mind but to the spirit — that spirit which, at times, gets so very hungry for encouragement.

I read books that lift me. I talk with people who leave me on high ground and make me want to tackle the job that people say can't be done — and do it!

One fine thing about such organizations as the Rotary, Kiwanis, and their kind, is that they encourage their members to think of others and to work in a harmonious spirit. Each is an asset to any town.

We all need mental and spiritual prods at times. We all need to lift every day of our lives. By being a lifter, we also are lifted! Never discourage any one who thinks that he is right. If he is wrong, he will find it out in time.

Nothing warms the human heart like lifting the hope, or ambition, or courage of some one else. Just try it!

Just Folks

A SUMMER DAY

Dreams are for a summer's day!
Truly rich the man who may
Let his cares and burdens shift
While his thoughts in fancy drift,
Drift and bear his soul afar
Where the long-lost splendors are.

Rich the man who for a day
Shuts the noisy world away,
Or indifferently to use,
Lies and sees the billows surge
On a peaceful, sunny shore,
Racing back to come once more.

Lost to fame and deaf to greed,
Feeling not the spur of need,
Freely from all the tyrants grim
Which have whipped and driven him;
There he sets his soul at large,
Drifting like a purple barge.

Golden visions his his eyes,
All the lush within him dies;
Beauty, from her lovely arms
Flings to him a thousand charms,
Rich indeed the man who may Dream away a summer day.

especially since this State was noted for its appreciation and splendid treatment of old soldiers. W. G. Veazey, judge of the Supreme Court of Vermont, who commanded the 16th Regiment of Stannard's Brigade during the battle, made a stirring address, remarking that he was the worst scared man in the 75,000 men who went into the battle of Gettysburg, but was not as badly scared as at present. General Fairchild said twenty-five years have made it possible to sandwich a Yankee and a Confederate between Yankee Doodle and Dixie. The men of the North did not love the men of the South less, but they loved the old flag more and the men of the South did not love the old flag less, but they loved states sovereignty more. "This, Mr. President, I think tells the whole story. The old flag still remains (cries of "amen") and they all say "amen" from the gulf to the states."

Gettysburg And The Reunion: The "crash" of last week is over and Gettysburg has resumed its quiet life. Probably forty thousand strangers were in and around it, during those days, and it required a great effort to make them comfortable. But for the 1,000 tents lent for the purpose by the United States, those furnished for its own troops by the States of New York, New Jersey, and those used by the Grand Army, it would have been impossible for this population to have properly cared for the ten times its own number who were upon us. We are satisfied that the town can claim to have cared for its visitors as considerably as Philadelphia did for its Centennial visitors.

The July session of the Christ Church Consistory will be held on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the church. The quarterly repair fund yet certain Philadelphia and New York newspapers are, in manifest contempt, vying with each other in heaping ridicule and contempt upon the citizens of Gettysburg. Possibly an occasional over-charge for service was made during those crowded days. To that sort of thing country visitors to both these cities are quite accustomed, even in ordinary times, when they happen to fall within the power of the greedy class. But to stigmatize a whole population for a wrong committed by one or more unscrupulous persons is a palpable injustice which an intelligent editor should never permit his paper to be defiled in making.

Morse Raps GOP Mental Health Move

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse accused the Republican administration over the weekend of bringing political patronage into Pennsylvania's mental health program.

"Non-political sources are reporting to us that Republican county chairmen are pushing their way into the offices of the superintendents of our mental hospitals to demand the firing of competent personnel and the immediate hiring of Republican party hacks," Morse declared in a statement.

He said he had received reports of specific incidents of political intervention from Allentown, Clarks Summit and Retreat State Hospitals.

MISS BARDAHL WINS DETROIT GOLD CUP RACE

DETROIT (AP)—The green and black colors of Miss Bardahl fly as Gold Cup speedboat racing champion for 1963.

The Seattle boat driven by Ron Musson, former Akron, Ohio, electrical contractor, won the honors Sunday by leaving her favored Seattle companion, defending champion Miss Thriftway, far to the rear.

A crowd estimated at 185,000 watched the dramatic battle on the Detroit River as Miss Bardahl beat out a field of 12 of the nation's highest-powered unlimited hydroplanes.

MISS 5TH WIN

The outcome of the seven 15-mile heats denied driver Bill Muncy, handling Miss Thriftway, an historic fifth Gold Cup victory.

Miss Thriftway finished last among the six finalists as the veteran Muncy lost his chance to tie the old-time Detroit racer Ray Wood's record of five cup triumphs.

Traveling at speeds well above 100 miles per hour, though less than Miss Thriftway's 116.463 m.p.h. qualifying record, the racers duelled in alternate rain and sunshine.

Miss Bardahl finished her day with 1,500 points to the runner-up Gale's 1,400. Tahoe Miss of Reno, Nev., driven by Chuck Thompson, was third with 1,225.

Next in order were Notre Dame of Detroit, driven by Col. Warner Gardner, 845; Miss Exide, Seattle, driven by Mira Slovak, 844; and Miss Thriftway, 823.

The Cup victory was worth $10,000 first money to Musson. He also won several hundred dollars more in lap and other prizes.

FORD'S BIRD ON 17TH HOLE WINS $9,000

TORONTO (AP) — Doug Ford knew on the 16th green what he had to do. So on the 17th hole he calmly sank a 15-foot putt for a birdie and won the $50,000 Canadian Open Golf Championship Saturday with a 72-hole final of 280, four under par.

The 40-year-old Yonkers, N.Y., pro heard on the 16th that Al Geiberger of Carlton Oaks, Calif., had finished with a six-under-par 65 for a 281.

"I knew then what I had to do," Ford said later.

ADDS HOMEY TOUCH

Adding a homey touch to the scene on the Scarborough Club course, Ford walked down the fairway to the 17th green holding the hand of his eight-year-old daughter.

After he curled in the 15-footer for his birdie he played it safe on the last hole. His second shot stopped only four feet from the hole. He made sure of a par 4 by nursing the ball to the edge of the cup and then tapping it in.

That gave him a final round of 70, one stroke under Geiberger, and first prize money of $9,000. Ford's previous rounds were 69, 67 and 74.

Geiberger earned $4,600 for his second place finish. George Bayer of Pasadena, Calif., Fred Hawkins of El Paso, and Bruce Crampton of Australia tied for third at 282 and each collected $2,633.

Make that stew a day ahead of serving, cool, cover and chill. Then lift off the top layer of hardened fat before re-heating. If members of your family are on low-fat diets, they'll appreciate this effort of yours.

TRIED TO QUIT RACING POST

HARRISBURG (AP) — L. B. Sheppard, Hanover horse breeder, says he made a move to resign last month as chairman of the state Harness Racing Commission.

"I offered my resignation to Gov. Scranton, but he declined to accept it at this time," Sheppard said Sunday.

On April 23, Democrats in the Senate refused to lend a single vote to confirm the reappointment of Sheppard, a Republican. There have been several attempts in the Senate to either ban him from racing in Pennsylvania or oust him from the commission.

Asked if the Senate's actions had anything to do with his offer to resign, Sheppard said: "Perhaps it did. Some of the (Senate) bills I didn't pay much attention to, others I thought were insolent."

Sheppard's reappointment was reconsidered and tabled by the Senate shortly after it refused confirmation Under state law, he may stay on as chairman until a successor is named.

CLIFF HANGER GOES TO PHILS

CHICAGO (AP) — A triple by Ruben Amaro and a pinch single by Cookie Rojas gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 come-from-behind victory over the pennant-contending Chicago Cubs Sunday.

The Phils, who opened the scoring in the third on a walk, a single and a sacrifice by Tony Taylor, fell back after the Cubs scored in the fourth and sixth.

Johnny Callison tripled home the tying run in the eighth but the Phillies were prevented from busting it open by brilliant relief work of Lindy McDaniel.

Amaro's triple led off the ninth. Rojas, batting for reliever Jack Baldschun, singled him in. Baldschun earned his sixth win against four losses in a brief two

Totem Pole Will Stage Suzie Wong

The Totem Pole Playhouse production of the Broadway hit, "The World of Suzie Wong," which will open a week's run at the Caledonia theater tonight, will be one of the largest nonmusical shows to reach its stage.

The love story by Paul Osborn, based on the best selling novel by Richard Mason, will have a large cast of actors thronging the many gaudy backgrounds of Hong Kong's bustling waterfront. They will enact the colorful drama in 11 fast moving scenes representing the fabulous city that is England's last great outpost in Asia.

The title role will be played by Miss Tisa Chang, a native of C'anking, Mary Mon Toy will portray Minnie Ho, the role in which she was seen in the original production. Engle Conrow will play the young Canadian artist and many other favorites will appear.

The large revolving stage will take the audience through the streets of Hong Kong. Special oil paintings have been executed for the production by Doris Hutton, with decor and costumes by Betty Knepper. The entire production has been designed and lighted by Al Wagner and will be directed by William H. Puteh. It will be shown nightly at 8:30 o'clock with a Wednesday matinee at 2:30 p.m. . . . ETB

"DOC" KEARNS DIES; WAS BIG MAN IN BOXING

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two months ago Jack "Doc" Kearns, one of the most fabulous characters of boxing's golden era in the 1920s, said from a hospital bed: "Tell the mob I'll be back soon. I think I'll beat the count."

Sunday the man who managed Jack Dempsey to the heavyweight championship and who is credited with bringing the first million dollar gate to boxing by making it possible for women to attend fights without any social stigma, died at the age of 80.

"The last words my father spoke were: 'We have to get ready and get on the ball and go to Nevada,'" said Jack Kearns Jr. at whose home the old promoter died. He explained his father planned to establish a health center in Nevada and promote boxing there.

"JUST WORE OUT"

"His body just wore out," the younger Kearns said. "In two months confinement to bed he kept arguing with doctors that he had to be up and doing. He had the active mind and sense of humor of a young man."

Funeral services for the fabulous Kearns who, in addition to Dempsey managed Mickey Walker, Joey Maxim and Archie Moore to world championships, will be held Wednesday afternoon in the Philbrick Chapel in Coral Gables.

"I am sorry to hear it," Dempsey said in New York when informed of Kearns' death "but we had been expecting it. We had a lot

WILKINS SAYS NAACP YOUTH TO GET POWER

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said today NAACP youth groups have been "unshackled and will take a more aggressive role" in the organization's civil rights fight.

"Our 40,000-member youth corps will no longer be restrained or hampered by conservative policies of some local NAACP chapters," Wilkins said.

"They will receive direction from our national headquarters in New York and be free to plan and stage demonstrations under our existing constitution and directives."

TELEPHONE INTERVIEW

Wilkins was interviewed by telephone from Charleston, S.C., where he had addressed an integration meeting Sunday night.

His comments on NAACP youth resulted from a bitter attack on the quality of the organization's youth leaders by James H. Meredith, the first known Negro to attend the University of Mississippi. Meredith's criticism, made at the NAACP's annual convention in Chicago last week, was answered with a vehemence which caused Meredith to admit "I wept my first tears since I was a child."

AROUSING ANGER

Meredith aroused the anger of ORRTANNA—Miss Marie Wetzel, Broomall, Pa., after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wetzel, left for a six-week trip with friends to California and the Pacific northwest.

Miss Bonnie Cramer, Chambersburg, R. 5, spent the week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Haines.

Visitors during last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. James Donaldson were Mrs. Ethel Donaldson, Chambersburg; Mrs. Lorna Mummert and Mrs. Hoover, of Hanover; Mrs. Charles Eichmann Jr., Mrs. Shirley Shertzer, Mrs. Doris Wolf and Mrs. Patrick Constens, of Lancaster.

the NAACP youth group by saying:

"Any one of you burr heads out there could be the owner of a large department store, president of a corporation, or even mayor of the city of Chicago. Only believe, all things are possible, if you only believe."

He also remarked on "the low quality and ineffectiveness of our Negro youth leaders."

Wilkins commended Meredith as a "very independent and courageous person."

"OUT OF STEP NOW"

"It was unfortunate, however, that he made the mistake of attacking our youth."

"Mr. Meredith endured much to be admitted to the University of Mississippi, but he is now out of step and evidently misinformed about the civil rights fight," Wilkins said.

Wilkins emphasized that the role of adults in the NAACP is not being de-emphasized but is being revamped to allow the organization's youth to participate more actively in the integration fight.

BUCKS LEADERSHIP

The NAACP leader said he had found the leadership in the youth group "intelligent, articulate, militant and free from fear, especially fear of certain economic reprisals some adults might have."

"I first suggested our youth should be utilized in direct action under national office supervision at our 1960 annual convention in St. Paul," he added.

"They will be active, very active in both planning and executing their activities."

"Our youth leaders are our future adult leaders. It is only fitting that they play an active and militant role in this social struggle."

SHOT WOMAN THREE TIMES

KENNETT SQUARE, Pa. (AP) —Edward Walter Brown, 35, was being held today charged in the rifle slaying of a 22-year-old woman Saturday.

The victim was Mrs. Rose Marie Anderson, like Brown a resident of this small Chester County community.

She was shot three times with a .22 caliber rifle Saturday morning as she hung out clothes in a yard behind the home of Mrs. Frances Johnson, with whom she was staying, police said.

Police said Mrs. Anderson had lived with Brown and was the mother of his child. They said the two had been quarreling recently and she had filed charges of assault and battery against him last week.

Brown was taken into custody shortly after the slaying by Kennett Square police and questioned during the weekend by state troopers.

PLAN MENTAL HEALTH STUDY

HARRISBURG (AP)—A $400,000 study of mental health treatment in Pennsylvania is being planned by the Department of Public Welfare.

The study, announced over the weekend by Welfare Secretary Arlin M. Adams, will be financed by a federal grant. The project will take two years to complete.

Adams said Gov. Scranton would name a mental health advisory planning committee, composed of representatives of governmental, professional, religious and civic organizations.

This project will be an all-inclusive assessment and evaluation of the mental health needs of Pennsylvania, Adams stated. He added, "With the development of this 'master plan' we will have a complete blueprint for a comprehensive approach to mental illness—one of the major health problems of our times."

COMEBACK GAL WINS EASTERN GOLF TOURNEY

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — The comeback with which the girl called Dimples won the Lady Carling Eastern Open Golf Tournament Sunday didn't surprise those who know her.

The real comeback for 22-year-old Shirley Englehorn was the one she made two years ago with an assist from Ben Hogan.

Miss Englehorn was just getting the hang of professional golf when she suffered head injuries and a broken back in an accident. She spent weeks in St. Joseph's Hospital at Augusta, Ga., unable to walk.

HOGAN VISITS

When the greats of men's golf began arriving in Augusta for the 1961 Master's Tournament, Hogan was told of the youngster in the hospital. He dropped in for a visit and urged Shirley, with the voice of experience, to fight her way back into the game.

Miss Englehorn's recovery from then on was steady. She rejoined the Ladies' PGA tour last year. The feature of her play was the winning of the first Lady Carling last year.

To repeat Sunday, she had to come from four strokes behind Kathy Whitworth of Jal, N.M., after losing her first-round lead with a seemingly disastrous 79 Saturday.

The girl from Caldwell, Idaho, caught Miss Whitworth on the 10th hole, then outgunned Joanne Gunderson, the women's National Amateur champion, in a head-to-head duel for the rest of the round.

PRIEST DIES

COALDALE, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Fabian Anderko, rector of Holy Trinity Catholic Church of Pottdown and a former pastor at eight other churches in Pennsylvania, died of a heart attack Sunday while attending a special service in this Schuylkill County town.

MELODYLAND ILLUSTRATES SEASON TREND

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—If you don't see a musical play this summer, it may be that you just aren't trying.
Not since the Golden Era when every American community had its own vaudeville house and stock company has so much lively entertainment been available. And good entertainment, too. In barns, tents, auditoriums and in the fresh summer air, topnotch shows are being presented with some professional stars and casts that are professional or eager, or both.

Some enthusiasts see the trend as a major renaissance in the living theater. Nowhere is the trend better illustrated than here in Anaheim.

MELODYLAND PROJECT

A somnolent orange town of 11,000 in 1940, it has been converted by Walt Disney and the postwar boom into a city of 144,000. Two veteran showmen are hoping to convert that boom into a year-round theater operation that would do credit to Broadway.

The showmen: Sammy Lewis, onetime operator of Slapsy Maxie's now producer of shows for Las Vegas; Danny Dare, producer of stage musicals ("Meet the People") and movies ("Road to Rio," "Incendiary Blonde").

Their enterprise: Melodyland—the name is a must, since it's across the street from Disneyland.

LIKE GIANT TENT

Melodyland rises amid the procession of motels and coffeehouses like a giant tent. On closer inspection, it is revealed as something more permanent. Inside, it proves to be a handsome, sturdily constructed arena with 3,200 seats surrounding a circular stage. There are only 20 rows so that even the cheapest seat ($2 vs. $5.50 top) doesn't have that reverse-binocular view of most galleries.

"It's the most beautiful theater of its kind in America," enthused Lewis, who gave its cost at $1.5 million.

"Nothing like it," agreed Dare. Both were high on their chances of success.

STARVED FOR CULTURE

"We had an advance for $300,000 before the season began," said Lewis.

"And $250,000 of it came from Orange County," said Dare. "That proves there is an audience for theater here. One of our best bets is that lots of engineers and scientists have moved down here to work in the big industrial plants. These people are starved for something cultural."

EXTEND SEASON

So encouraged are Lewis and Dare that they have added another five fortnights of shows, including Betty Grable in "Guys and Dolls" and Dennis Day in "Brigadoon."

"Summer musicals are getting to be an industry," observed Lewis. "I've heard there are 80 companies of 'Molly Brown' this summer. All a fellow has to do

Red Astronaut Raps Planes And Prayers

MOSCOW (AP) — Valentina Tereshkova, the Soviet Union's first woman astronaut, said Saturday she cannot understand how U.S. female jet pilot Jerrie Cobb "can combine the piloting of supersonic planes and prayers."

The 26-year-old Communist party member made the comment to the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia while leafing through Miss Cobb's book, "Woman Into Space."

An Izvestia correspondent who showed Miss Tereshkova the book said at one point the cosmonaut grinned at a photograph of Miss Cobb kneeling in prayer before a home altar.

EMPTY GIRLS' DORM BLAZES

FORT WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—The main building on a Temple University branch campus here was destroyed Friday night by fire. Located in the building was a girls' dormitory, vacant when the blaze started.

Police said a temporary loss of water pressure in hydrants hampered the seven Montgomery County fire companies that tried unsuccessfully to save the three-story stone and frame building.

Only five girls had been living in the building for the summer term, compared with a fall term enrollment of about 70.

Offices, a dining room and kitchen, the dormitory and storage space were located in the building. Only the walls were left standing today as officials sought to determine the cause of the fire.

There was no immediate damage estimate.

Car Shears Pole; Teen-ager Dies

PHILIPSBURG, Pa. (AP) — One teen-ager was killed and four others injured Saturday when their car went out of control and sheared off a utility pole.

Killed was James Soltis, 17, of Hawk Run, Clearfield County. State police said he was a passenger in a car that was headed north on Route 53 in nearby Morris Twp. at a high rate of speed.

The injured were taken to Philipsburg State Hospital. The driver, Thomas Sudik, 19, of Hawk Run, suffered multiple bruises.

William Saggese, 21, of Munson received a possible compound fracture of the right ankle and abrasions; Carl Willenson, 18, of Munson suffered possible injuries of the chest and left leg, and Martin Rusnak Jr., 18, of Hawk Run received brush burns of the body.

Ben Bella Calls For New Party

ALGIERS (AP) — Premier Ahmed Ben Bella has called for dissolution of the National Liberation Front (FLN) as Algeria's single political party.

In its place, he proposed forming a new popular front.

Observers viewed Ben Bella's proposal as a maneuver to outflank his opponents who are reported trying to use the FLN to oust the premier.

nowadays is to write one hit musical and he's a millionaire. I know guys who write shows for Broadway with stock in mind. That is where the big payoff is nowadays."

LONDON NIXES RUSSIAN VISA

LONDON (AP)—Britain, beset by spy scandals, has turned down a visa for a Russian colonel the Soviet Union wanted to assign to London and has barred another Russian officer from visiting a naval air base in Scotland.

The admiralty said it had denied the request of Capt. Konstantin Sukhoruchkin, naval attaché at the Soviet embassy here, to attend an open house at H.M.S. Condor, the Royal Naval Air Station near Arbroath, Scotland. Sukhoruchkin holds the post formerly occupied by Capt. Yevgeny Ivanov, who shared the favors of Christine Keeler with former British War Minister John Profumo.

The Foreign Office suggested to the Soviet embassy that it might like to reconsider a visa application for a Col. Kuchumov "for reasons which the embassy themselves appreciate." The embassy, which had picked Kuchumov to become its air attaché, bowed to the British ruling, officials said last night. They said he formerly served in the Soviet embassy in Washington.

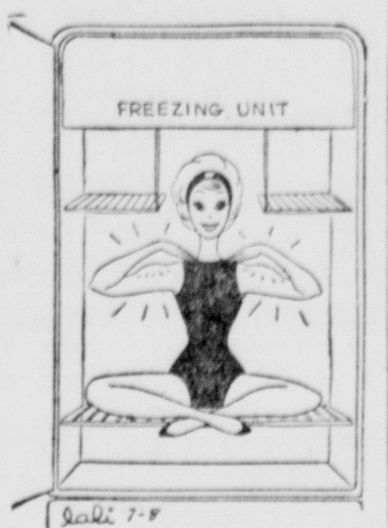

ROME (AP)—Premier Giovanni Leone won a confidence vote in the senate Friday after telling senators he supported the general principle of President Kennedy's plan to establish a multilateral NATO nuclear force.

The senate endorsed Leone's all-Christian Democrat minority government 133 to 110, just 10 votes over a required majority.

Seventy-six senators did not participate in the voting.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
A IR-COOLED EXERCISE. For figure-watchers, summer is a sensitive season. Hot weather induces laziness, the lazy seldom exercise, and lack of exercise causes fleshy accumulations. Consequently, if you wish to preserve or improve the figure you've got, you really cannot succumb to complete inactivity. But that does not mean that you have to work out like an athlete.

You can hold the line and trim a bit, too, by performing a few muscle-toning routines. Those below are designed to overcome all the usual objections to exercise—it's too hot, too hard, too time-consuming. Yet they are extremely effective in strengthening the muscles. And the stronger muscles are, the better they are able

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — John M. Breth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Breth, recently returned home from service in the United States Navy. He spent his last year on Midway Island where he was manager of radio station KMTH and disc jockey of the "Early Bird Show." In appreciation of his work on KMTH he was presented with a letter of commendation from the commanding officer of the Naval station, Midway Island.

to gird up fleshy or flabby tissue. To perform: 1. Stretch out on back (in bed if you like). Contract abdominal muscles—hold for 10 slow counts. Relax and pull in on diaphragm for 10 counts. Next contract waist, with an accordion action. Repeat entire routine twice. Lastly, try to contract all midriff muscles simultaneously. The best way is to start with abdominal muscles and work up.

2. Stand erect with fingertips on shoulders, elbows out to sides; flex biceps until muscles quiver. 3. Standing with feet together, pull kneecaps up, twist legs outward, and tense inner leg muscles—hold for 10 counts. Relax and repeat twice. 4. Contract buttock muscles for 20 counts.
